

COMMUNICABLE DISEASES EXEMPTION FORM

The State of Iowa requires education in the area of communicable diseases that includes discussion of sexually transmitted diseases. Holy Trinity Catholic Schools Inc. asks each parent/guardian to yearly designate whether he/she holds the school responsible for this education or whether he/she agrees to accept the responsibility of such education for his/her children. Copies of textbooks and class materials are available in the principal's office for parents to examine if they have questions. Students will be supervised in another area of the building during class presentations of affected topics.
